

Maura Whelan is a Project Manager in the PMO at Greenberg Traurig. Maura is a certified Project Management Professional with over 7 years experience as an IT Project Manager in both the consulting and legal fields. She has real world experience in Document Management, Email Management and Records Management implementations focusing not only on the technology but the process and policies needed for successful information management.